The management of athletics at Goddard wishes to notify parents that boys will not be allowed on the seminary grounds during a football game unless they pay an admission fee of 15 cents. They were admitted free at the last two games and proved themselves to be a nuisance, running over the field and interfering with the players and those who paid to see the games. The next game will be to-morrow afternoon at 3:30, when Goddard lines up against the strong St. Michael's team. Manager Craig is negotiating with the Newport, Vt., high school team for a game here next Wednesday. Newport has won from all the school teams in the northeastern part of the state by big scores and the game should prove to be a great attraction. Burlington high comes the last of next week.

There is another great program on at the Pavilion, a program that is bound to draw a large attendance during its stay in town, which will be to-day and to-morrow. The big feature of the show is Lillian and Orth, a Dutch comedy act that certainly is a laugh extractor.

Last night's audience liked them so well that they were forced to take several curtain calls and do an extra encore. Their jokes are all new and are told in a manner that is positively rib splitting. Miss Edith Hutton has a very dainty and pleasing act. An entire change of pictures comes to-day, both reels being of the feature order. An excellent program is also booked for the first three days of next week. Altogether things are looking mighty fine for the patrons of the Pavilion during the week to come.
